PROOF POINT · ACCELLERON

120 sites.
87 countries.
One partner.

When ABB's turbocharging business became Accelleron, the new brand had to land on buildings, offices, vehicles and merchandise, consistently, everywhere.

ACCELLERON · PLANNING

Scoped down to the last detail.

A virtual survey across 80 countries. A brand book for every site, produced with the design agency. Sign-off from the local manager and the client before anything was made.

ACCELLERON · PERMISSIONS

We closed part of one of Europe's busiest ports.

For two hours, with three cranes working together, to lift the headquarters sign. In Rotterdam a roof membrane issue meant building an extra gantry before the sign could go up.
